

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

CONTACT: Mary Ann Bohrer
(412) 421-1389
mabet@att.net

HYPERACTIVE TECHNOLOGIES NAMES ROBERT N. GRIMES TO THE COMPANY'S BOARD OF DIRECTORS

Pittsburgh, PA, March 29, 2006...HyperActive Technologies, Inc., a world leader in kitchen production management systems which create real time operational solutions for quick serve and fast casual restaurants, has named noted restaurant hospitality industry expert Robert N. Grimes to its Board of Directors.

“We are delighted to have Rob join our board of directors, and are looking to drawing on his impressive wealth of experience in the foodservice and hospitality industries,” said Joe Porfeli, CEO of HyperActive Technologies.

Currently, Mr. Grimes is Chairman of Accuvia, a company based in Potomac, Maryland which provides information technology services for the hospitality, foodservice and retail industries. In 1996, Mr. Grimes co-founded FS/TEC – the foodservice industry’s largest technology tradeshow and conference -- with Nation’s Restaurant News. In 2000, he launched HOSTEC, a technology-focuses exhibition and conference for the hospitality and foodservice industries in the U.K., which joined forces in 2002 with the IH&RA and is now called the HOSTEC-Eurhotec Exhibition and Conference.

In addition to his management positions, Mr. Grimes has been a regular technology columnist for Nation’s Restaurant News and has contributed articles to many other industry publications in the U.S. and abroad, as well as co-authoring and contributing to a number of books. He has spoken at 500 industry shows, conferences and event around the world.

Mr. Grimes has received many industry and company awards over the years, including the Maryland Executive of the Year Award sponsored by the Maryland High Technology Council, which he received in April 2000. His companies have been awarded the 1999 and 2000 Deloitte & Touche Maryland Technology Fast 50 Award and the 1999 FastTrack Revenue Growth Award, sponsored by Arthur Andersen.

Other awards include The Joseph A Sciulli Entrepreneur of the Year Award (1996), sponsored by the Suburban Maryland High Technology Council; The Ernst & Young Entrepreneur of The Year Award (1994), World Young Business Achiever Award (1994), sponsored by the U.S. Chamber of Commerce and presented by His Royal Highness Prince Philip, the Duke of Edinburgh; and The Penn State Alumnus of the Year Award (1994).

Mr. Grimes is a Conti Professor in the Program of Hotel, Restaurant and Institutional Management (“HR&IM”) at Penn State University and also serves on the Advisory Boards of the HR&IM Programs at the University of Delaware and the University of Nevada Las Vegas. In addition, he has served on the Board of the National Restaurant Association as an Industry Representative and is an active member of the Baltimore-Washington Chapter of The Young President’s Organization and the Washington Chapter of the World Entrepreneurs Organization.

Mr. Grimes has a Bachelor of Science degree from the Pennsylvania State University in Food Service and Housing Administration where he trained in hotel and restaurant management. He is also a triathlete, completing the Ironman in Lake Placid in 2002, 2003 and 2004 and Ironman World Championship in Kona in 2005.

HyperActive Technologies™ is a world leader in kitchen production management systems which create real time operational solutions for quick serve and fast casual restaurants. Founded in 2001, the company’s has consistently delivered on its stated goal of providing automation systems that enable restaurant operators to guarantee consistent food quality and availability at each and every store in the chain, every time, all the time. The company’s current customer base ranges from quick serve burger chains to fast casual chicken restaurants located across the US.